

Nueva Esperanza Academy Charter High School Administrative Regulations

Right-to-Know Law

Administrative Regulations

Exceptions to Public Records

These administrative regulations are adopted in order to guide the Open Records Officer in determining whether a requested record constitutes a public record that is subject to disclosure under the Right-to-Know Law, or whether certain information contained in a public record may be redacted before the record is made available for public inspection or duplication.

I. Definitions:

For purpose of these regulations the terms set forth below shall have the following meanings:

Administrative proceedings shall mean a school proceeding whose outcome is required to be based on a record or documentation prescribed by law or in which a statute or regulation is particularized in application to individuals. The term includes an appeal.

Aggregated data shall mean a tabulation of data which relate to broad classes, groups or categories so that it is not possible to distinguish the properties of individuals within those classes, groups or categories.

Confidential proprietary information shall mean commercial or financial information received by the school:

- (i) which is privileged or confidential; and
- (ii) the disclosure of which would cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the person who submitted the information.

Financial record shall mean any of the following:

- (i) any account, voucher or contract dealing with the charter school's receipt or disbursement of funds or the charter school's acquisition, use or disposal of services, supplies, materials, equipment or property;
- (ii) the salary or other payments or expenses paid to an officer or employee of the charter school, including the name and title of the officer or employee; or
- (iii) a financial audit report, but excluding work papers underlying an audit.

Personal financial information shall mean an individual's personal credit, charge or debit card information; bank account information; bank, credit or financial statements; account or PIN numbers and other information relating to an individual's personal finances.

Privilege shall mean the attorney-work product doctrine, the attorney-client privilege, the doctor-patient privilege, or other privileges recognized by a court interpreting the laws of this Commonwealth.

Social services shall mean cash assistance and other welfare benefits, medical, mental and other health care services, vocational services and training, occupational training, educational services, counseling services, workers' compensation services and unemployment services, foster care services, services for individuals with disabilities and services for victims of crime and domestic violence.

Trade secret shall mean information, including a formula, drawing, pattern, compilation, including a customer list, program, device, method, technique or process that:

- (i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from being generally known to and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; and
- (ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. The term includes data processing software obtained by the school under a licensing agreement prohibiting disclosure.

II. Public Access to Records:

School records are subject to disclosure under the Right-to-Know Law unless the entire record, or certain information contained therein, is expressly exempted from disclosure by one of the exceptions set forth in Pennsylvania's Right-to-Know Law, or other state or federal law that prohibit such public access.

Section III of the administrative regulations summarizes the general rules on records that are exempt from the public disclosure requirements of the Right-to-Know Law. These general rules do not apply to financial records and aggregated data.

Section IV of the administrative regulations summarizes the financial records and aggregated data that are exempt from the public disclosure requirements of the Right-to-Know Law.

The Open Records Officer is responsible for determining whether a record, in whole or in part, is a public record subject to disclosure. The Open Records Officer shall consult these administrative regulations and confer with legal counsel as needed to determine whether disclosure of a record is required by law.

III. General Exemption Rules – Other Than Financial Records and Aggregated Data

The administrative regulations organize the public disclosure exemptions set forth in the Right-to-Know Law into the following sub-categories:

- A. Business/Financial Matters (not constituting "financial records")
- B. Curriculum and Academic Materials
- C. Facilities and School Buildings
- D. Investigative Materials
- E. Students

- F. Employee Information
- G. Labor Relations Information
- H. Pre-Decisional Deliberations
- I. Privileged Communications with Professionals
- J. Real Estate
- K. Computer/Technology Information
- L. General/Miscellaneous
- M. Exemptions Generally not Applicable to Public Schools

These sub-categories do not appear in the Right-to-Know Law, and are intended to serve only as an organizational guide for the Open Records Officer when determining if a record, in whole or in part, is exempt from the disclosure under the law.

Information or records falling within the exemptions set forth below do not need to be disclosed in order to respond to a request to access a record. In certain instances, the record may be available for public inspection after the exempted information is redacted. In other instances, the entire record may be exempt from disclosure.

The Open Records Officer shall review the exceptions set forth in Section IV of the regulations when entertaining a request for a financial record or aggregated data.

A. Business/Financial Matters (not constituting "financial records")

1. Insurance Communications – information relating to a communication between the school and its insurance carrier, administrative service organization or risk management office. 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(27).

 - c. National Security or Public Safety Concerns – (i) a record maintained by an agency in connection with the military, homeland security, national defense, law enforcement or other public safety activity that if disclosed would be reasonably likely to jeopardize or threaten public safety or preparedness or public protection activity; (ii) a record designated as classified by state or federal military authorities; and (iii) a record the disclosure of which creates a reasonable likelihood of endangering the safety of the physical security of a building, public utility, resource, infrastructure, facility, information storage system or significant special event, from a terrorist act, or is otherwise deemed critical infrastructure by the federal government. 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(2)-(3).

- d. Computer Systems – aggregated data regarding computer hardware, software and networks, including administrative and technical records, which if disclosed would be reasonably likely to jeopardize computer security. 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(4).
- e. Medical Information – aggregated data that would disclose an individual’s medical, psychiatric or psychological history or disability status, including an evaluation; consultation; prescription; diagnosis or treatment; results of tests, including drug tests; enrollment in a health care program or program designed for participation by an individual with disabilities; enrollment in workers’ compensation and unemployment compensation that would disclose individually identifiable health information. 65 P.S. § 67.708(b)(5).

V. Trade Secrets or Confidential Proprietary Information of a Third Party

If the Open Records Officer reasonably believes that a requested record contains a trade secret or confidential proprietary information of a third party, the following procedures shall be used when responding to the request:

1. The Open Records Officer shall determine if the third party provided the school with a written statement signed by a representative of the third party that the record contains a trade secret or confidential proprietary at the time the record was submitted;
2. If such written statement was submitted, the Open Records Officer shall notify the third party within five (5) business days of its receipt of the request;
3. The third party shall have five (5) business days from the notification by the Open Records Officer to provide input on the release of record;
4. The Open Records Officer shall grant or deny the request for record, in compliance with the requirements of the policy, within ten (10) business days of its notification to the third party; and
5. The Open Records Officer shall notify the third party of the decision regarding the request for the record. 65 P.S. § 67.707(b).

VI. Transcript of an Administrative Proceeding

If the Open Records Officer receives a request for a transcript of an administrative proceeding, the following procedures shall be used when responding to the request:

1. The Open Records Officer shall determine if the transcript of the administrative proceeding is exempt from public disclosure:
 - a. As a general rule, a transcript from a proceeding adjudicating the rights of a student (for example, expulsion hearing or special education due process hearing) or an employee (for example, dismissal hearing) will be exempt from public disclosure – and the disclosure of such transcripts shall not be made without consulting legal counsel; and
 - b. Transcripts of certain types of hearings (for example, Act 34 hearing, Charter School Law proceedings) are subject to public disclosure.
2. If a transcript is subject to public disclosure, the school shall either make its own copy of the transcript available for public disclosure or forward the request to the court stenographer who transcribed the proceedings if the school does not have a copy of the transcript. 65 P.S. § 67.707(c).
3. In processing requests for public records, information shall be made available to individuals with disabilities in an appropriate format, upon request and with sufficient advance notice.
